A quiet, industrial neighborhood seems an unlikely location to find a wonderful fabric store, but Supreme Novelty is an astounding surprise after you are buzzed through the non-descript door and escorted to the studio. A third generation family operation since 1934, the open showroom space welcomes you with banners of jewel-tone fluttering silk curtains blowing in the breeze from the open windows. The majority of fabrics are for bridal and special events, with a large assortment of decorating textiles. Lovely silks, funky knits, metallics and traditional dressy fabrics enchant the eye. Hundreds of heavy cardboard tubes hold the fabrics neatly for a pleasing and unusual display. I was enchanted by the retro library card files that serve as color-coded bins for hundreds of zippers. A long-time tradition, the Valentine's Day sale offers 40% off all fabrics.

Supreme Novelty Fabrics is filled with bridal, special event and decorating fabrics. Look for cleverly arranged zippers and fabrics.
